KARINE AND LIONEL LATORSE

History, Passion & Philosophy

HISTORY

Karine and Lionel Latorse, former winegrowers of Saint-Emilion Grand Cru or Saint-Emilion great wines, decide in 2004 to create Kalivitis, a commercial company in order to distribute all Latorse family-made wines, as well as a rigorous selection.

PHILOSOPHY

The perfect knowledge of the terroirs, the producers and their working methods, allows Karine and Lionel to select the best wines throughout France and to guide our partners at each stage of the elaboration of our products.

OUR DISTRIBUTORS

The scope of our range is adapted to the markets and allows to meet the demand of the consumers. Our development department creates more than 200 new labels, but also adapts the type of bottle, capsule, cap or carton for each specific case.

OEM PRODUCTION OR CUSTOM BRANDED WINES

Kalivitis has the necessary means to produce personalized wines for each customer. On a defined minimum volume, you can choose from our catalog : The type of bottle, the capsule color, type of printed cap with its logo, type of boxes (6 or 12 bottles, standing or lying), the design of its label, the back label in the language of your choice, and the type of wine : red, white, rose and its category.

PRODUCTION IN KEYKEGS (WINE CASKS)

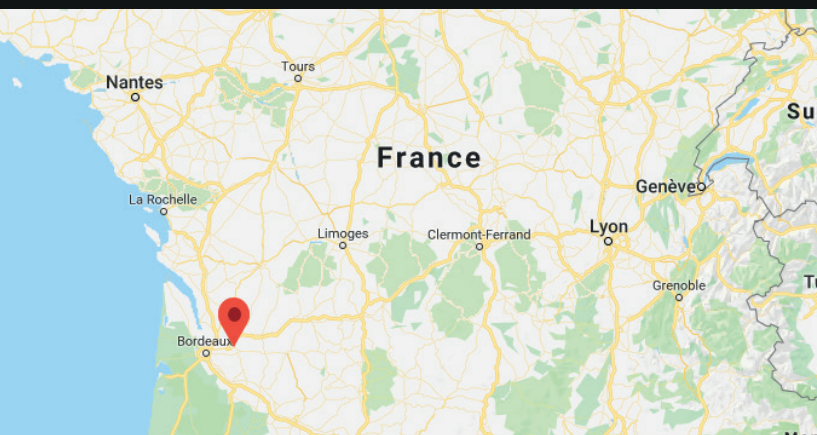

With the Keykegs, you have the possibility to offer a wider variety of wines in the KeyKeg, without loss of quality or loss at the level of the shelf life. As a winegrower, beverage distributor or restaurant operator, you are not only creating new sales opportunities, but you are making huge savings in terms of transportation and storage.

SHIPMENT OF BULK WINE FOR BOTTLING ABROAD

Since 2017, we can offer our customers of certain countries equipped with bottling structure for bulk wines of French origin (French table wines, PGI, AOC) selected by our care in order to deliver them in the best sanitary conditions. We control and guarantee all the operations, as well as the quality and the freshness of the wine upon arrival in the port of destination.
